Keynote Speaker

Thomas A. Seiler, WMS

Raymond James Senior Vice President, Investments

A founding member of The Seiler Group of Raymond James, Tom has focused on addressing the sophisticated needs of institutional investors and families for more than 20 years. He began his career in 1990 with Merrill Lynch, concentrating on high-net-worth clients that wanted more freedom of time.

Tom concentrates on highly developed asset allocation and investment strategies, conducts extensive research and evaluation on investment management firms, forms comprehensive investment policy statements and provides ongoing performance measurement and monitoring portfolios for our clients' life plans.

Guest Speaker

Lori Marie Mason

Lori's Funky Junk Decor

Specializing in painting and updating vintage furniture and accessories. In addition to my own creations I also do custom painting on your personal dated and worn pieces to give them a new look and new life. I will work with you to create a design perfect for your style. I offer interior design tips and ideas to help you create a look with an eclectic style. The key is mixing things up with old, new, paint and texture. Repurposing items always makes for great conversation and the old pieces made new again give a warm and cozy feel to your home.
